On the occasion of the 40th Charter Day of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC), I convey my greetings and felicitations to the citizens of the member states of SAARC.

SAARC was established as an organization to work towards a common goal of achieving social, cultural and economic growth for all the people within the South Asian region. As a founding member, India remains committed to support various initiatives to achieve closer cooperation in diverse areas. An environment of peace and security is essential for regional cooperation to flourish and achieve economic development and prosperity of SAARC.

On this occasion, let us re-commit ourselves to realizing our collective vision of a peaceful and integrated South Asia.
