On the momentous occasion of the 40th SAARC Charter Day, it gives me great pleasure to extend warm greetings and best wishes to the Secretary-General, the Secretariat, SAARC-affiliated institutions, and the people of the South Asian region.

Since its inception, SAARC has championed the cause of improving the lives of South Asians. As we commemorate this milestone, we recall the principles and values enshrined in the SAARC Charter, towards peace, and prosperity of the region. On this day, let us reinvigorate our commitment to addressing critical issues, such as climate change, public health, and economic inequality. In addition, prioritizing sustainable development, innovation, resilient infrastructure, and connectivity is essential for regional well-being.

I am pleased to reaffirm the Maldives' commitment to building a dynamic and more inclusive SAARC, that fulfills our shared aspirations and promotes a brighter and prosperous future for all our people.
